Monarchists Active Again In Berlin

(By Associated Press) London, March 17-Berlin corres pondents of London newspapers assert that monarchist reaction is overshadowing the new government. The Mail's correspondent who has arrived from Berlin, asserts that President Ebert, Chancellor Schiedemann and Minister of War Noske, are merely puppets who merely for the purpose of retaining office, allowed members of the military caste to reappear as organizers of the new republican armies. Meanwhile the monarchists are apparently endeavoring to methodically exterminate the Sparta-
